PSALMIC ODES FROM APOSTOLIC TIMES - An Indian Monk's Meditation: edited by Dr Bernard Kilroy

The Odes, or short poems, which are associated with the name of Solomon, constitute one of the most puzzling pieces of early Christian literature. These psalms, or 'Odes' were re-discovered for what they were only in 1909. Since then, scholars have laboured to be sure of the text and its origins - in language, dating and theology. Some translations are available in the West; this translation is the first in India for general reading - by an Indian monk, with meditations. For those wanting to delve into the Odes' background, and how they were originally understood, the commentaries lead to further reading, although that's just the beginning.

UNDERSTANDING JESUS: by R. Rajendra Prabhu

This book is the author's response to a large number of queries about Jesus Christ that the author's non-Christian friends, at the top of various professions, used to ask him. He explains the specific events in Jesus' life and their meaning thereby seeking to provide an insight into two telling definitions of the divine in the New Testament: Apostle John described God as Love. St. Paul said, "Christ is the visible image of the invisible God". The author explains the importance of Christ on the Cross and delves into the question often asked: Why Christ, though being Divine, accepted the Cross instead of walking out of it.

HUMAN EXISTENCE AS HOME-COMING -

An approach in Reflective Phenomenology: by Johnson J. Puthenpurackal (ACPI)

This book is a reflective journey of thought on human existence. This thought is unfolded in the journey and takes place along with that of the thinker. Hence there is a 'personal touch' in the emergence and development of the thought in this book. The thought is presented as a journey of home-coming, and this journey passes through the various dimensions of human existence into the wider horizon of a cosmic home with a realization that the journey cannot be stopped, but has to be continued.

WESELEY'S PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION FOR SOCIO-SPIRITUAL CHANGE: by H.G. Mithra

The book highlights a comparative study of Wesley's pedagogy and purpose in relation to Education, with that of Paulo Freire, a 20th century Brazilian activist, philosopher and educator, and a leading proponent of critical pedagogy. While re-examining Wesley's perspective in the light of Freire's critical pedagogy, the book exposes striking similarities between the two. As per their belief, education should not be oppressive, and not to be employed in molding learners in accordance with the exploitative system of the given society.
