THE HOLY BIBLE ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION – CATHOLIC EDITION

(Released during the 33rd CCBI Plenary Assembly in Bangalore on 4th March, 2018)

The Catholic Edition of the English Standard Version (ESV) Bible is now available for use in the liturgy, in theological centers of learning, in Bible study groups, and in basic Christian communities.

Features:

- The ESV Bible is adapted from the Revised Standard Version of the Bible.
- Each word and phrase in the ESV has been carefully weighed against the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek, to ensure the fullest accuracy and clarity and to avoid under-translating or overlooking any nuance of the original text.
- With its commitment to literary excellence, the ESV is equally well suited for public reading and preaching, for private reading and reflection, for both academic and devotional study, and for Scripture memorization.
- The footnotes indicate significant alternative readings and occasionally provide an explanation for technical terms or for a difficult reading in the text.
- Imprimatur to this Catholic Edition of the ESV is given by his Eminence Oswald Cardinal Gracias on behalf of the CCBI.

INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE - Theology of Sacred Space: by Simon Pinto

The theology presented in this book is an interreligious theology to aid dialogue with other religions. Sacred space theology emerges in the search for a common ground for dialogue especially with the believers of Buddhism and Jainism who do not believe in a personal God, who is otherwise the common ground. Yet even the atheists can be very well part of such a dialogue based on sacred space as seen in the present work that sacred space extends beyond the physical religious structures to every human heart, his conscience and all that is good and holy.

LOCALISATION AND RE-CONSTRUCTION OF CATHOLIC RELIGIOUS PRACTICES - A Case Study of Sri Lankan Tamil Catholic Diaspora in Germany: by Jerome Mariadhasan

This anthropological study explains the localisation and re-creation of religious practices of Sri Lankan Tamil Catholics, who have settled in Germany. This study also considers the Sri Lankan Tamils as a diaspora community, in the process of constantly constructing various traditional concepts such as culture, politics and religion. The author's anthropological findings states that the attempt of the Sri Lankan Tamils to construct ethnic, cultural and religious identities based on diaspora experiences are not fixed; but rather it is fluid. It is a continuous and ongoing process of construction and reproduction of ethnic, cultural, social, political and religious Tamil identity through various narratives over the generations.

100 EUCHARISTIC MIRACLES - Proved by Science - Approved by Church: by Fr Antony Netikat, CM

The Holy Eucharist is the source at which Christian life is nourished. It is the highest expression of our life in Christ, for it unites us sacramentally with him through the Sacrifice of the Cross. Eucharistic Miracles are God's gift to mankind to witness to the truth of Christ's 'Real Presence' in the sacrament of the Eucharist as doubts have often been raised about this reality. Under these circumstances, this book "100 Eucharistic Miracles" comes as a precious gift to the followers of Christ to enlighten them concerning the depth of the doctrine on the Holy Eucharist and to inspire them to receive the Holy Communion worthily and devoutly for the nourishment of their spiritual life.

THEOLOGY

IDENTITY IN CONFLICT - A Socio-rhetorical Reading of the Markan Story of Jesus: by Cyprian E. Fernandez

This book is a significant contribution to the scientific study of the Gospel of Mark, since it helps to specify better the latent rhetorical intention of the text. A must read for anyone interested in the early Christians and leaders of the church. This study challenges the image of the 'first century Christians' as altruistic believers. The new social identity that this story claims to propose is not something just of the past, but also a permanent point of reference to the renewal of the Christian communities.

PROPHETIC OBEDIENCE –
Ecclesiology for a Dialogical
Church: by Bradford E. Hinze

A church of dialogue needs always to be a church of prophecy and so it has to be a church as well of prophetic obedience. Author's compelling argument makes a major contribution both to theological debates about the reception of Vatican II and to the everyday life of the Church and its struggle for justice. This book offers a profound contribution: a notion of prophecy grounded in the mutual receptivity of the Trinitarian divine life.

WOMEN AS EYEWITNESSES TO THE CHRISTIAN KERYGMA – The Galilean Women in the Redaction of Luke – An Exegetical Study of Luke 8:1-3: by Virginia Rajakumari Sandiyagu, SAB

A scientific and critical study of the role of women disciples of Jesus has been made available to the biblical scholars in India and abroad through this research study. In this meticulously-researched and persuasively-argued book, the Author contends that the Synoptics, and especially St Luke, present women as eyewitnesses to the Christian Kerygma. Although the women of Galilee are introduced as disciples and benefactresses, Luke subtly leads the reader to recognize them as eyewitnesses to the life, passion, death and resurrection of Jesus.

THE LECTOR – Effective and Affective way of Proclamation of the Word of God: by Rayanna Govindu

The role of the Lector in the celebration of the sacraments, especially the sacrament of the Eucharist is very significant. Anyone can read the Scripture in public; only a believer can proclaim it. It needs to be done with competence and skill. Unless the word of God is proclaimed well, participants will not hear God's voice, and be nourished at the table of the word. This book with five small chapters focuses on the biblical, spiritual, liturgical and pastoral aspects. It will be of great help for all, be they Religious, lay people, trainers or trainees, in the ministry of proclamation.

CATECHETICS

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES TO SMALL HUMAN COMMUNITIES: by Dr Joseph Coracao De Jesus Dias, SVD

The world today needs to be more and more integrated and less and less fragmented. We are living in an age of globalization and still there are contradictory trends causing deep felt and harmful fragmentation. And so society at large is certainly in need of enterprises like Small Christian Communities. The theme of Small Christian Communities is well worked out on credible Biblical and Doctrinal foundations. The author has delved into this subject, not merely on socio cultural grounds. Of course, from civil and sociological perspectives the promotion of Small Christian Communities certainly emerges as a legitimate project in the present day fragmented and high bred society.

THE SACRED AND THE HOMO RELIGIOSUS

— Articulating a Philosophical Anthropology from Mircea Eliade's Concept of the Sacred: by Joy Kaipan, SDB

Philosophical anthropology is a critical reflection upon questions concerning the human being, his or her origin, nature and destiny. This study is centred on the reality of the sacred and its philosophico-anthropological implications. This book critically analyzes Eliade's concept of religious human being and its various facets, such as, religion, anthropology, myth, time, symbol, ritual, and so on. The theme of the book also reflects the ability of studies on Eliade to ignite valuable debate and to raise important issues in the study of religion.

COMMITMENT IN AMARTYA SEN'S PHILOSOPHY:

by Previnth Joe Tony, SDB

Commitment plays an important role in economic activities and in our lives in society. It drives a wedge between personal choice and personal welfare. It is an actual reality in society, in which the roles of ethics, religion, culture and social norms of behaviour can be identified. This book reflects on the notion of commitment in Amartya Sen, the Indian economist and philosopher. It also studies the relevance of this notion in the context of the encyclical Caritas in veritate (CV) by Pope Benedict XVI on integral human development.

PHILOSOPHICAL ANTHROPOLOGY – An Introduction: by Scaria Thuruthiyil, SDB

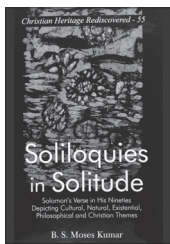

The first part of this exposition analyses the fundamental aspects of man as a subject (ego), who lives together with other subjects in the world. The second part deals with the theme of human realization: human existence is an appeal, a vacation and a responsibility. And finally third part examines the essential unrealizable characteristics of man: two paradoxes: failures and death, hope: immortality.

BECOMING A NATION – Processes and Prospects: Edited by Dolreich Pereira

This book explores some of the ideological considerations underlying the terms "nation" and "nationalism". It examines aspects of nationalism by using a multidisciplinary approach and invites us to listen to new and old voices of Indian nationalism. By exploring the different facets that are involved in "Becoming a Nation" it also makes us realize the enormity of the project to be undertaken. No attempt has been made to form a synthesis of the various views presented: this celebrates the unity of positive purpose in the diversity of views which is fully in keeping with the spirit of the Indian nation.

TRUTH THAT WINS, LOVE THAT ABIDES - Exploring God's Love through Jesus Christ: by Mathew Varghese Kollasseril

Truth doesn't require anybody's deliberate support to be established. It happens as a universal law.

Author moves to the realm of spirituality and finds that all of us are called to be the witnesses of truth. 'A Christian can never afford to forfeit the love of God nor can he remain silent without letting others to experience it.' It is very pleasant to preach about non-violence, but it is difficult to practice love of one's enemy. 'Love of the enemy' is the ultimate summit of non-violence and it is the base to preserve the humanity on this globe. This book is an outcome of Author's own experience of the Love of God. The words of wisdom shared through this book will enkindle many hearts.

THE UNEXPECTED CHRISTIAN CENTURY – The Reversal and Transformation of Global Christianity 1900-2000: by Scott W. Sunquist

The great merit of Scott Sunquist's book is to narrate the recent history of Christianity as a genuinely and thoroughly World History. In 1900 many assumed the twentieth century would be a Christian century because Western "Christian empires" ruled most of the world. What happened instead is that Christianity in the West declined dramatically, the empires collapsed, and Christianity's center moved to Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the Pacific. How did this happen so quickly? Respected scholar and teacher Scott Sunquist surveys the most recent century of Christian history, highlighting epochal changes in global Christianity.

THE PRIEST IS NOT HIS OWN:

Sheen delves deeply into what he considers the main character of the priesthood, and one not often discussed, that of being, like Christ, a "holy victim". To be like Christ, Sheen emphasizes that the priest must imitate Christ in His example of sacrifice, offering himself as a victim to make His Incarnation continually present in the world.

2005 ed. 278 pp. Rs 380

THOSE MYSTERIOUS PRIESTS:

Sheen explores the duality inherent in the vocation of the modern-day priest: his need, like that of Christ, to feel the holiness of God that binds him to the Father; and at the same time his need to become a victim, like Christ, for the world's sins, assuming its guilt and poverty in union with the Lord. In these pages he covers a wide range of topics including what it means to be both priest and victim. This work is a veritable treasure of wisdom and insight into the nature and practice of the priesthood.
