CREATIVE MINISTRIES

Fr. Martin Baliah

Here is a book, entitled “Creative Ministries” which exposes the daring and courage of Fr. Martin Baliah of the Archdiocese of Madras-Mylapore who worked in the remote villages of the district of Kancheepuram for over 25 years. The bitter struggles which he had to endure when he took up the defence of the poor dalits against the onslaughts of some caste people is in short a retelling of the Gospel. Fr. Martin has shown that a missionary option of this type is difficult but not impossible.

In this book, he shares his rich experiences and his different liberative and prophetic ministries. He also makes critical reflections on his experiences and pastoral praxis. Reading and re-reading through the pages of his book is great inspiration and challenge both for ministry and spiritual life.

BALLALARAYANA DURGA

Untapped Eco-Tourism Potential of Chikkamagaluru District Karnataka

J.W Lobo (Joe Wilson Lobo)

As is widely known, Chikkamagaluru district forms part of the formidable Western ghats mountains range - accorded the UNESCO World Heritage status – and is older than the Himalayas. Chikkamagaluru district is also known as the cradle of coffee cultivation in India with the Muslim sufi saint Baba Budan planting coffee seeds brought from Mecca in the Chandragiri hills region in 1670 and the place gaining popularity as Bababudangiri. Chikkamagaluru was famous for the export of iron ore from the Kudremukh Iron Ore Co. Ltd. Thus, Chikkamagaluru has its own unique place in Karnataka and across the country for a variety of reasons. This book on Ballalarayana Durga and Sri Kalabhairaveshwara temple is a glowing testimony to the greatness and richness of our historical past and cultural heritage.

EMPOWERING THE DALITS AND POOR IN THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT

A Alangaram

This book is a marvelous chef-d'oeuvre of doing theology from, in and for the Context. Starting with the painful stories of the Dalits in Tamil Nadu before and after their conversion into Christianity, the author goes back to the accounts of the oppressed in the Bible including that of Jesus, to develop new prospects of Dalit theology and Dalit empowerment and thereby a better future for the Church in India. The anthropocentric methodology, scientific rigour, inter-disciplinary approach and findings of secular and theological researches make this volume a source book for the students of subaltern hermeneutics and narrative theology.

O YOUTH, YOU ARE PRECIOUS

Contextual Reflections on Youth and Youth Ministry

A. John Baptist and M. David Stanly Kumar

The articles presented in this book are, in a way, the road map of the Synod of Bishops on the youth. They spell out the urgency and need for a modernized youth ministry and youth catechesis. The first section elucidates the concern of the Church towards the youth mainly from the teachings of the Church. The second section highlights the biblical perspectives on youth by presenting various biblical role models and vocation narratives. The third section deals with youth ministry and biblical spirituality for youth. The articles such as 'Role of Prayer,' 'Faith and Faith Crisis in the Life of Youth' and 'Youth and Media' are very much related to the existential issues that the youth face today. It will enable the readers to understand the importance of youth in the mission of the Church.

FORTY SORROWS OF JESUS

Reflections for the Season of Lent

Shajan P Joseph, CM

This book presents a number of incidents from the life of Jesus, meditated upon, studied in detail connecting with the Old Testament revelation and finally churned it out in relation to our own contemporary situation. Every chapter takes a single verse from the Gospels that lead the reader to memorize a Jesus event. These are then treated succinctly but sufficiently commented. Each of the titles ends with a prayer relating to the suffering of Jesus and hence the sufferings of the poor and of those who are pushed aside to the periphery of the society, by the powerful. The meditations give ample space to the reader for enhancing the Lenten spirit for personal prayer, further reflection and thus conversion to be better Christian.

MY ENCOUNTER WITH CHRIST

+ Antonsamy Peter Abir

The reflexions contained in this book are pastoral: they are the thoughts and words of a pastor to a flock “challenged by today’s trends.” They are liturgical as they follow the course of the liturgical year from the Maranatha of Advent to the “Joys and sorrow” of Christmas, on to the time of Lent as the “season of transformation,” and the Paschal mystery of the Cross and Resurrection, to continue to “walk in his footsteps” in the post-paschal times, meeting Mother Mary frequently along the way. They are also biblical. They are the expressions of the encounter of the Spirit speaking in the Scriptures with the Spirit at work in the signs of the times.

IMPACT OF INNOVATIVE BIOMEDICAL METHODS OF TREATMENT AND RESEARCH UPON HUMAN LIFE IN INDIAN SOCIETY

A Moral - Theological Approach

By John Vara

The development of modern life sciences poses significant political, ethical and legal challenges to every pluralistic society. Human life, which is relatively available within its frontiers, birth, illness, and death, seemed unthinkable in former times, is viewed and experienced as sophisticated amid the advancement of life sciences and technology. This book reflects today’s new frontiers in medicine and their corresponding discussions concretely on moral issues in medical care and treatment. In a practice-oriented application, current ethical challenges are discussed relating to the biomedical research methods and treatment with a particular reference to research on human beings and reproductive medicine. This book provides both substantive direction to humankind going in a moral wilderness surrounded by biomedical advancements as well as support to the traditions of medicine and its criterion for a responsible, ethical assessment of the biomedical progress towards ethics of life with a unique character of the biblical image of man. This book, therefore, marks a feature of the specific implication of the Christian values in the field of biomedical research to administer in this sector of biomedicine for the good of every human being.

DANGERS OF THE NEW AGE

A Movement that Strikes at the Root of the Faith

Binita Jacob

Binita Jacob makes an honest attempt to counteract the present trends of the 'New Age' which 'though pleasant to the eyes' are often destructive to the human person. She is explicit with regard to what sets the Christian faith apart in the context of religious syncretism and the resultant New Age ideology. She also explores the essence of the Christian Faith and the glory of God and man. The glory of God consists in the realization of His manifestation and communication of His goodness, for which the world was created.

Her work becomes relevant, as she judiciously delineates the consequences of NAM both in the society at large and Church in particular. The farsighted insights shared in this study are highly beneficial to delineate the NAM, the silent killer of the Christian faith. This study will function as a handbook for every Christian believer who wants to know the alarming impact of NAM in depth and detail.

YOU WILL BE MY WITNESSES

(Acts 1:8)

Witness in the Acts of the Apostles

Sophia Paul Kuzhippalayil, DM

"You are witnesses of these things" (Lk 24:48). "You shall be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). Sending the disciples as witnesses is, for Luke, the conclusion of the Gospel, of what Jesus said and did. It is also the beginning of Acts, of what the Church is called to do. As a conclusion and as an introduction, the theme of witness is the focus of the Lukan double work. But what does it mean to witness? This is what the book of Sr Sophia Paul intends to set forth by answering the basic questions - Who are the witnesses? What do they witness to? How do they witness? When and Where do they witness? The book shows that witness can be visual and trans-visual. The book has the careful analysis of the relevant texts of the Acts of the Apostles which helps us better to understand our role as "witnesses to the ends of the earth."

THE FAMILY MORAL VALUES IN VĀLMĪKĪ RĀMĀYANA AND IN THE TEACHINGS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Michael Peters

This book presents to the readers the Family Moral Values enshrined in the Vālmiki Rāmāyana which is one of the most ancient Indian Epic and in the Official Documents of the Catholic Church. This is also an attempt to see how in the modern urban world where families are formed by couples of two different religions, particularly in Indian context, between Hindus and Catholics. It is author's sincere desire to help such couples married but belonging to Catholic and Hindu religious traditions, to understand the richness, goodness and the beauty of family moral values present in their own and in other religious traditions and begin to respect one another's religious tradition and find a way to life those values.

CHRIST IS ALIVE

Apostolic Exhortation Christus Vivit

Pope Francis

In his fourth apostolic exhortation, Christus Vivit, Pope Francis encapsulates the work of the 2018 synod of bishops on “Young People, The Faith, and Vocational Discernment.”

It is written for and to young people, also for the entire Church, because, as he says, reflecting on our young people inspires us all. Antonio Spadaro, SJ gives an elaborate introduction which makes this volume special.

He is alive and wants you to be alive! This is how Pope Francis begins his new apostolic exhortation, which he signed on 25 March 2019. ‘Life’, ‘living’, ‘alive’ are terms repeated throughout the text, just as many times as the word ‘young’, which is the key to the exhortation. A life lived to the full: this is the heart of the thinking of Francis concerning young people. The pages turn over quickly, full of energy as though to shake us or literally exhort us to a full life.

In his exhortation, Francis focuses on how to help people discern their own paths of life. Discernment is a process that requires accompaniment and presupposes liberty. There is no magic recipe. This is the great lesson that Francis offers young people: help them recognise that their destiny and that of the world are in their hands. Their commitment, in the light of faith, is vocation and mission. This book is not only for the youth but also for the whole church involved in the youth ministry.

RELIGIONS, INTER-RELIGIOUS DIALOGUE AND EVANGELIZATION

Andrew Anil Sequeira, OFM Cap

Religions of the world have been studied and explained analytically highlighting their variety and diversity, but never their content and consistency. Religions are consistent in themselves possessing specific ‘symbolic universes’ like animistic, ontologic (nature of being) and personalistic. These symbolic universes, though distinct, are not contradictory but complementary. Then the author goes on to speak of the Symbolic Universe and Religious Discipline of each religions. He gives special attention to Christianity’s inter-religious dialogue and evangelization. He says, Christianity stands in need of a new ‘theology of religions’ that is ‘inclusive-pluralist’, the one that can respect all religions in their essence and manifestation. Such a theology of religions would help Christianity to initiate and carry on inter-religious dialogue, obey Christ’s mandate of evangelization and live together with all the religious adherents of the world in peace and harmony.

This book, therefore, is absolutely for all who are directly involved in the task of inter-religious dialogue and evangelization. To Christian scholars, priests and seminarians (studying theology), it would be of great assistance to instruct Christian faithful the right approach both to inter-religious dialogue and evangelization.

EMERGING PARADIGM OF MISSION IN THE NEW MILLENNIUM

FABC Documents from 1970-2004

M. Antonydoss

In this book, the author highlights the ways of practising the new paradigm of mission described and recommended by Asian Bishops. The paradigm of mission, sharing of faith with others is done through a triple dialogue: mission as inculturation, mission as interreligious dialogue and mission as service of the poor. He unfolds the creative understanding of mission illustrated by the Asian Bishops – mission as response to the call and inspiration of the Spirit, Who is active in the Asian culture. He further points out how Asian Bishops explain the method of integration which enables us to discern and interpret the differing mission situations in Asia. This book will be helpful to our missionaries as they reflect on how to spread the Kingdom of God. This volume is a significant contribution of thoughts from theologians to our reflection on mission not only in Asia, but also for the Universal Catholic Church who are working in the field of evangelization and interreligious dialogue.

THE SPIRIT OF THE LITURGY

Commemorative Edition

Romano Guardini, Joseph Ratzinger & Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

This is a special Commemorative Edition of one of the most important works written by Joseph Ratzinger: The Spirit of the Liturgy. This edition includes the earlier classic work with the same title by Servant of God Romano Guardini, a book that helped Ratzinger to “rediscover the liturgy in all its beauty, hidden wealth and time-transcending grandeur, to see it as the animating center of the Church, the very center of Christian life”.

Considered by Ratzinger devotees as his greatest work on the liturgy, this will help readers to deepen their understanding of the rites of the Church. The cardinal discusses fundamental misunderstandings of the Second Vatican Council’s intentions for liturgical renewal, especially about the priest’s orientation of prayer to the Father, the placement of the tabernacle in churches, and the posture of kneeling.

Other important topics are the essence of worship; the Jewish roots of Christian prayer; the relationship of the liturgy to time and space; sacred art and music; and the active participation of the faithful in the Mass.

PATHWAYS TO PEACE

Compiled by Fr. Bala Kiran Kumar, SJ

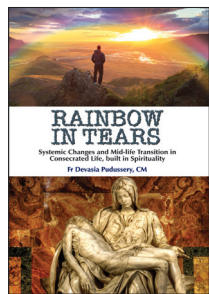

Though practically all founders of religions preached love and brotherhood, yet when one sees around so much conflict and violence, enmity and animosity on grounds of religion, one wonders whether it is a pathway to peace, or just the opposite. Is there a way of resolving this paradox? This book is a tiny attempt at that. It expounds the core teaching of each of the major religions, with the fond hope that one sees the good offered by each religion and a ray of hope for peaceful co-existence and inter-religious harmony.

LOCALISATION AND RE-CONSTRUCTION OF CATHOLIC RELIGIOUS PRACTICES

A Case Study of Sri Lankan Tamil Catholic Diaspora in Germany

by Jerome Mariadhasan

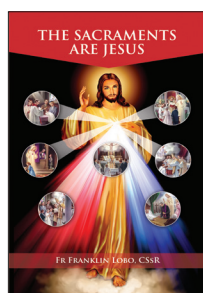

This anthropological study explains the localisation and re-creation of religious practices of Sri Lankan Tamil Catholics, who have settled in Germany. This study also considers the Sri Lankan Tamils as a diaspora community, in the process of constantly constructing various traditional concepts such as culture, politics and religion. The author's anthropological findings states that the attempt of the Sri Lankan Tamils to construct ethnic, cultural and religious identities based on diaspora experiences are not fixed; but rather it is fluid. It is a continuous and ongoing process of construction and reproduction of ethnic, cultural, social, political and religious Tamil identity through various narratives over the generations.

THE SACRAMENTS ARE JESUS

Fr Franklin Lobo C.Ss.R

In this book, author meaningfully draws out the rich meaning of the sacraments by taking them out of the realm of the ritual and placing them rightly in the context of Gift, the gift of the Father, Jesus. In this book, the catechism on the sacraments is clearly brought out. Each sacrament is explained using a new way – 4 aspects of each sacrament through a diagram. A summary for each chapter will help teachers and those who wish to do intensive study.

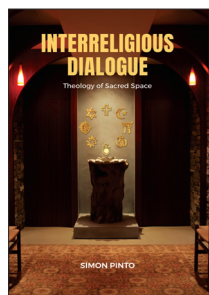

This book, simple in style, practical in approach and yet profound in its very relevant matter will be a source of inspiration and deepening of this precious gift of the Sacraments.

INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE

Theology of Sacred Space

Simon Pinto

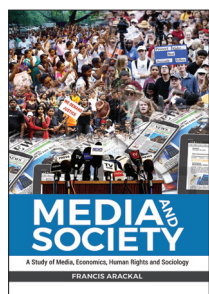

The theology presented in this book is an interreligious theology to aid dialogue with other religions. Sacred space theology emerges in the search for a common ground for dialogue especially with the believers of Buddhism and Jainism who do not believe in a personal God, who is otherwise the common ground. Yet even the atheists can be very well part of such a dialogue based on sacred space as seen in the present work that sacred space extends beyond the physical religious structures to every human heart, his conscience and all that is good and holy.

SEARCH FOR TRUTH

Collected Papers of Prof Dr B Joseph Francis Volumes I & II

Edited by A Lawrence,

PV Antony & Stany C Fernandes

The reflections contained in these volumes has flowed from the spirituality, and profound and systematic knowledge of theology of Prof Dr B Joseph Francis. The articles are divided into four parts according to the theme, as it is a mix of theology, Philosophy and misiology. The author also gives a fair compilation of the significant dogmas of the Church. Written in simple terms, it has originality and a flair that is rare. What is most noteworthy in the writings is that they set us thinking and help develop our own point of view for the Christian life.

GOD – THE TRIPLE FACE OF LOVE

Towards a Trinitarian Theology

by Mathew Vekathanam

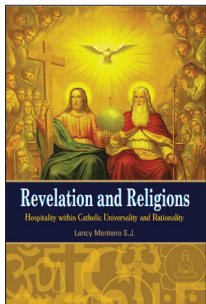

There are three important points discussed in this book: 1) The Question of God as such in Christian theology: God-Knowing and God-Talk, 2) God, the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ: The Biblical Approach, 3) The Christian specificity of this question especially in the Trinitarian dogmatic development. God reveals Himself in the economy of salvation as Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, as three persons in one reality. The ultimate source as meaning of all reality is personal: One God in Three Persons. The triple face of God is the triple face of Love. The Trinity is the mysterious divine scheme of love, the programme of life. This is a work of immense relevance especially for students of theology and qualified laity.

REVELATION AND RELIGIONS

Hospitality within Catholic Universality and Rationality
by Lancy Monteiro, SJ

In spite of two millennia of Missionary activity, we find only a tiny minority in the East is Christian, unlike in the West, and the chances of a better future are bleak. Against this background, the author studies the theological thought of the Sri Lankan theologian, Aloysius Pieris. The author also studies the missionary role according to Rahner who attempts to explain the fundamental truths of the Catholic faith and view that all humans are anonymously Christian, with the salvific truth implicitly given to them in creation.

THE JUSTIFIED MORAL EXISTENCE

Christ the Ground of Christian Moral Being by Dr Fr Kuriyan Joseph, OFM

This book examines the ground of the moral being of a Christian from the perspective of justification in Jesus Christ. The study is realized in three stages. In the first, the objective justification in Christ is examined, the second is a description of the subjective appropriation of the objective justification and the last describes the moral being of the Christian as his justified existence. The author shows the relationship between moral theology in reference to dogmatics and Christology.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

A Systematic-Theological Analysis of the Doctrine of Indissolubility

by Selvaraj Antonisamy, SAC

The book summarizes the doctrine of marital indissolubility as it was lived and taught in the Catholic Church. It is a systematic analysis that explains clearly and concisely what are the main arguments that have been involved in the essential properties of Catholic Marriage and the concrete contemporary challenges to them. It also discusses the biblical foundations, the historical development, the contemporary challenges to the doctrine of marital indissolubility and simultaneously propose ways and means through which a renewed theology of marital indissolubility can be constructed. It aims to provide a ‘more-inclusive’ pastoral care of those who have suffered through failed marital relationships.

PSALMIC ODES FROM APOSTOLIC TIMES

An Indian Monk's Meditation

Ed. by Dr Bernard Kilroy

The Odes, or short poems, which are associated with the name of Solomon, constitute one of the most puzzling pieces of early Christian literature. These psalms, or 'Odes' were re-discovered for what they were only in 1909. Since then, scholars have laboured to be sure of the text and its origins - in language, dating and theology. Some translations are available in the West; this translation is the first in India for general reading - by an Indian monk, with meditations. For those wanting to delve into the Odes' background, and how they were originally understood, the commentaries lead to further reading, although that's just the beginning.

A STUDY OF SHALOM VISION IN ISAIAH 1-39

For Minjung Empowerment in the Indian Context
by John Stanley Gunalan Thangaraj

As a theological re-reading of Proto-Isaiah, this exegetical work explores the mind of Isaiah, the Hebrew Prophet to see how he envisioned Shalom for the suffering people of his time in the context of utter hopelessness. This work sees in Isaiah a fitting forerunner who could challenge and inspire the suffering Minjung of India - the Dalit and Tribal communities - especially the Christians among them to dream hope and peace. Isaiah's shalom vision still remains unrealized; yet, it continues to inspire Minjung visionaries to envisage this state of blissful peace by pointing to them the direction towards which humanity ought to move.

MAGNIFY THE LORD

Prayer of the Church - A Commentary

by Sean B. Kellecher, CSsR

These psalm's main purpose is strictly practical and pastoral – to help young religious and seminarians to understand the psalms in the prayer of the Church a little better. These notes will help those who use them to assimilate and personalize the psalms so that they can pray them as their very own. The commentary is intended to be used continuously with the prayer of the church. The author writes with an exceptionally capable hand in The Psalms Explained. Excellent for study groups and individuals who want to be more at home with these classic prayers of the Bible.

HUMAN EXISTENCE AS HOME – COMING

An approach in Reflective Phenomenology
by Johnson J. Puthenpurackal (ACPI)

This book is a reflective journey of thought on human existence. This thought is unfolded in the journey and takes place along with that of the thinker. Hence there is a 'personal touch' in the emergence and development of the thought in this book. The thought is presented as a journey of home-coming, and this journey passes through the various dimensions of human existence into the wider horizon of a cosmic home with a realization that the journey cannot be stopped, but has to be continued.

HIND SWARAJ

Gandhi's Critique of Modern Civilization
by + Lawrence Pius Dorairaj DD., Ph.D

Based upon the ancient Vedantic wisdom proclaiming the supremacy of spiritual value over material might, the book goes on to articulate in some depth Gandhiji's alternative vision for the human race. Bishop Pius brings sharp and effective scholarship to his study in depth of Hind Swaraj, explicating many of Gandhiji's concepts and insights. This book will be of interest not only to students of Gandhiji but to the general reader who, without accepting Gandhiji's pre-industrialisation world view, nevertheless realises that the present rush towards super-consumerism and hyper-promiscuity needs to be balanced by a re-articulation of moral and spiritual values.

MISSION, MYTH & MONEY

In a Multicoloured World

by Jules Gomes

While challenging Indian Christians to reach out to post-Christian West, this book explores the quantitative and qualitative demise of Christianity in the Anglo-American world. It traces the western dominance of global mission through three major periods of world history and investigates why churches in India and other parts of the suffering worlds are hindered from playing out their role in world mission. It seeks to validate the thesis that trans-national mission is inextricably linked to power and economics and hence to churches from nations that are custodians of these controlling entities.

Spirituality of the Empowered Poor

by VV Thomas

This book is an attempt to do an in depth study of the history of Pentecostalism in Kerala from a Subaltern, historiographical and Postcolonial perspective. The basic hypothesis of this book is that in the development of the Pentecostal movement in Kerala, the Dalits of the movement were not given their due place as they should have been given. The study has established the fact that the history of the Pentecostal movement cannot be exhausted or interpreted by any one single community like the Syrian Pentecostals of Kerala.

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES TO SMALL HUMAN COMMUNITIES

by Dr Joseph Coracao De Jesus Dias, SVD

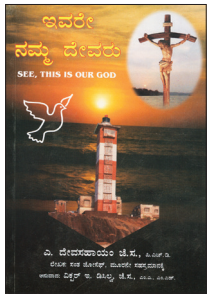

The world today needs to be more and more integrated and less and less fragmented. We are living in an age of globalization and still there are contradictory trends causing deep felt and harmful fragmentation. Therefore, society at large is certainly in need of enterprises like Small Christian Communities. The theme of Small Christian Communities is well worked out on credible Biblical and Doctrinal foundations. The author has delved into this subject, not merely on socio cultural grounds. Of course, from civil and sociological perspectives the promotion of Small Christian Communities certainly emerges as a legitimate project in the present day fragmented and high bred society.

AFRICAN SPIRITUALITY

Facts, Meanings, and Values

Ed. Thomas Kochalumchuvattil MSFS

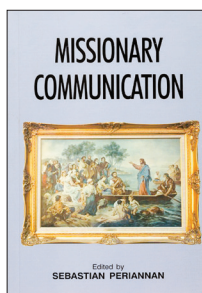

This book provides scholarly and valuable articles to clarify the meaning of spirituality through an understanding of the multiplicity and variety of indigenous religions in Africa. This study is of tremendous importance for understanding the beauty of Africa and the depth of African spirituality. It questions us as to whether or not we have understood the uniqueness and richness of the indigenous religions and culture of Africa. It opens up new insights and vistas to the understanding and living of spirituality. This study encourages us to look at sacredness and spirituality from the ideal of wholeness instead of spiritual perfection. African spirituality gives way to wholeness and holistic ideas and values of spiritual life.
