DANGERS OF THE NEW AGE

A Movement that Strikes at the Root of the Faith

Binita Jacob

Binita Jacob makes an honest attempt to counteract the present trends of the 'New Age' which 'though pleasant to the eyes' are often destructive to the human person. She is explicit with regard to what sets the Christian faith apart in the context of religious syncretism and the resultant New Age ideology. She also explores the essence of the Christian Faith and the glory of God and man. The glory of God consists in the realization of His manifestation and communication of His goodness, for which the world was created.

Her work becomes relevant, as she judiciously delineates the consequences of NAM both in the society at large and Church in particular. The farsighted insights shared in this study are highly beneficial to delineate the NAM, the silent killer of the Christian faith. This study will function as a handbook for every Christian believer who wants to know the alarming impact of NAM in depth and detail.

IMPACT OF INNOVATIVE BIOMEDICAL METHODS OF TREATMENT AND RESEARCH UPON HUMAN LIFE IN INDIAN SOCIETY

A Moral - Theological Approach

experienced as sophisticated amid the advancement of life sciences and technology. In a practice-oriented application, current ethical challenges are discussed relating to the biomedical research methods and treatment with a particular reference to research on human beings and reproductive medicine. This book provides both substantive direction to humankind going in a moral wilderness surrounded by biomedical advancements as well as support to the traditions of medicine and its criterion for a responsible, ethical assessment of the biomedical progress towards ethics of life with a unique character of the biblical image of man. YOU WILL BE MY WITNESSES (Acts 1:8)

Witness in the Acts of the Apostles

Sophia Paul Kuzhippalayil, DM

“You are witnesses of these things” (Lk 24:48). “You shall be my witnesses” (Acts 1:8). Sending the disciples as witnesses is, for Luke, the conclusion of the Gospel, of what Jesus said and did. It is also the beginning of Acts, of what the Church is called to do. As a conclusion and as an introduction, the theme of witness is the focus of the Lukan double work. But what does it mean to witness? This is what the book of Sr Sophia Paul intends to set forth by answering the basic questions - Who are the witnesses? What do they witness to? How do they witness? When and Where do they witness? The book shows that witness can be visual and trans-visual. The book has the careful analysis of the relevant texts of the Acts of the Apostles which helps us better to understand our role as “witnesses to the ends of the earth.”

THE SPIRIT OF THE LITURGY

Commemorative Edition

Romano Guardini, Joseph Ratzinger & Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

This is a special Commemorative Edition of one of the most important works written by Joseph Ratzinger: The Spirit of the Liturgy. This edition includes the earlier classic work with the same title by Servant of God Romano Guardini, a book that helped Ratzinger to “rediscover the liturgy in all its beauty, hidden wealth and time-transcending grandeur, to see it as the animating center of the Church, the very center of Christian life”.

Considered by Ratzinger devotees as his greatest work on the liturgy, this will help readers to deepen their understanding of the rites of the Church. The cardinal discusses fundamental misunderstandings of the Second Vatican Council’s intentions for liturgical renewal, especially about the priest’s orientation of prayer to the Father; the placement of the tabernacle in churches, and the posture of kneeling.

Other important topics are the essence of worship; the Jewish roots of Christian prayer; the relationship of the liturgy to time and space; sacred art and music; and the active participation of the faithful in the Mass.

RELIGIONS, INTER-RELIGIOUS DIALOGUE AND EVANGELIZATION

Andrew Anil Sequeira, OFM Cap

The author argues that religions of the world have been studied and explained analytically highlighting their variety and diversity, but never their content and consistency. Religions are consistent in themselves possessing specific ‘symbolic universes’ like animistic, ontologic (nature of being) and personalistic. These symbolic universes, though distinct, are not contradictory but complementary. Then the author goes on to speak of the Symbolic Universe and Religious Discipline of each religions. He gives special attention to Christianity’s inter-religious dialogue and evangelization. He says, Christianity stands in need of a new ‘theology of religions’ that is ‘inclusive-pluralist’, the one that can respect all religions in their essence and manifestation. Such a theology of religions would help Christianity to initiate and carry on inter-religious dialogue, obey Christ’s mandate of evangelization and live together with all the religious adherents of the world in peace and harmony.

This book, therefore, is absolutely necessary for all who are directly involved in the task of inter-religious dialogue and evangelization. To Christian scholars, priests and seminarians (studying theology), it would be of great assistance to instruct Christian faithful the right approach both to inter-religious dialogue and evangelization.

GOD'S WORLD AND OUR PLACE IN IT

Fulton Sheen

Fulton J. Sheen was one of the most popular television personalities in America. With the same wise, lucid explanations that won the hearts of so many viewers, Archbishop Sheen here demonstrates that Christianity makes good sense even to persons with no religious background. He argues that Christianity alone is able to explain the goodness we encounter in the universe and the evil. He shows us among countless other things: How conscience proves the existence of God, why there must be both a heaven and a hell, and what you must do to find your proper place in God's world.

EMERGING PARADIGM OF MISSION IN THE NEW MILLENNIUM

FABC Documents from 1970-2004

M. Antonydoss

In this book, the author highlights the ways of practising the new paradigm of mission described and recommended by Asian Bishops. The paradigm of mission, sharing of faith with others is done through a triple dialogue: mission as inculturation, mission as interreligious dialogue and mission as service of the poor. He unfolds the creative understanding of mission illustrated by the Asian Bishops – mission as response to the call and inspiration of the Spirit, Who is active in the Asian culture. He further points out how Asian Bishops explain the method of integration which enables us to discern and interpret the differing mission situations in Asia. This book will be helpful to our missionaries as they reflect on how to spread the Kingdom of God. This volume is a significant contribution of thoughts from theologians to our reflection on mission not only in Asia, but also for the Universal Catholic Church who are working in the field of evangelization and interreligious dialogue.

FORTY SORROWS OF JESUS

Reflections for the Season of Lent

Shajan P Joseph, CM

The book presents a number of incidents from the life of Jesus, meditated upon, studied in detail connecting with the Old Testament revelation and finally churned it out in relation to our own contemporary situation. Every chapter takes a single verse from the Gospels that lead the reader to memorize a Jesus event. These are then treated succinctly but sufficiently commented. Each of the titles ends with a prayer relating to the suffering of Jesus and hence the sufferings of the poor and of those who are pushed aside to the periphery of the society, by the powerful. The meditations give ample space to the reader for enhancing the Lenten spirit for personal prayer, further reflection and thus conversion to be better Christian.

HILLTOP MEDITATIONS

For Weekends and Special Feasts of Years A&B&C

Fr Benjamin A Vima

During all the 'HILLTOP' moments in Jesus' life, not only was he informed and confirmed by his Father about his true identity and mission, but he also shared those inspirations with his followers. This is what the Scriptures and the Church exhorts us to encounter during our personal prayer time. The author esteems the solitude of his retirement-life as a 'hilltop' milieu, which is very conducive to meditate in the presence of God who is the 'Highest'. He proclaims loudly, 'Where the Highest is, there the Hilltop is'. And he also underscores the meditations found in this work, which have been collected when he was at His Highest Place. This book contains 170 meditations based on Sunday scriptural passages, used in the Liturgical Years A, B, C, and in some special feasts. This work has to be at the desks of every preacher during the preparation of their Sunday homilies; it is also a handbook to be used by every Christian at his/her Sabbath Prayer Hours.

MY ENCOUNTER WITH CHRIST

+ Antonsamy Peter Abir

The reflexions contained in this book are pastoral: they are the thoughts and words of a pastor to a flock "challenged by today's trends." They are liturgical as they follow the course of the liturgical year from the Maranatha of Advent to the "Joys and sorrow" of Christmas, on to the time of Lent as the “season of transformation,” and the Paschal mystery of the Cross and Resurrection, to continue to “walk in his footsteps” in the post-paschal times, meeting Mother Mary frequently along the way. They are also biblical. They are the expressions of the encounter of the Spirit speaking in the Scriptures with the Spirit at work in the signs of the times.

PATHWAYS TO PEACE

Compiled by Fr. Bala Kiran Kumar, SJ

Is there a way of resolving this paradox? This book is a tiny attempt at that. It expounds the core teaching of each of the major religions, with the fond hope that one sees the good offered by each religion and a ray of hope for peaceful co-existence and inter-religious harmony.

PSALMIC ODES FROM APOSTOLIC TIMES

An Indian Monk's Meditation
 Ed. by Dr Bernard Kilroy

The Odes, or short poems, which are associated with the name of Solomon, constitute one of the most puzzling pieces of early Christian literature. These psalms, or 'Odes' were re-discovered for what they were only in 1909. Since then, scholars have laboured to be sure of the text and its origins - in language, dating and theology. Some translations are available in the West; this translation is the first in India for general reading - by an Indian monk, with meditations. For those wanting to delve into the Odes' background, and how they were originally understood, the commentaries lead to further reading, although that's just the beginning.

HOLY BIBLES

THE ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION – CATHOLIC EDITION

The Catholic Edition of the English Standard Version Bible is now available for use in the liturgy, in theological centers of learning, in Bible study groups, and in basic Christian communities. First published by Crossway in 2001, the ESV Bible is a “word-for-word” Bible translation that seeks to reproduce the precise wording of the original text and the personal style of each Bible writer. The principle of “word-for-word” literal translation is in accord with Liturgiam Authenticam as required for use in the Catholic liturgy.

The English Standard Version Catholic Edition (ESV-CE) will thus form the basis of the liturgical text in the Catholic Lectionary. Such a literal translation is also helpful for all students of Scripture. The ESV Catholic Edition will bear abundant fruit in the lives of Catholic readers and all other readers — in liturgical celebrations and theological institutions, and in personal, family, and communal reading.

God's boundless mercy has become the recurring theme of Pope Francis' preaching and teaching. He so desires that we understand the mercy of God that he has called for an Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy. This faith-sharing guide provides an opportunity to participate in the holy year in a meaningful way. Each of the eight sessions features a Gospel passage followed by a homily on that passage by Pope Francis. Questions for reflection and discussion focus on both the Scripture text and homily.

JESUS OF NAZARETH HOLY WEEK (Volume II)

From the Entrance into Jerusalem to the Resurrection

Jesus of Nazareth is the Son of God, and no myth, revolutionary, or misunderstood prophet, insists Pope Benedict XVI. He thinks that the best of historical scholarship, while it can't "prove" Jesus is the Son of God, certainly doesn't disprove it.

Why was Jesus rejected by the religious leaders of his day? Who was responsible for his death? Did he establish a Church to carry on his work? How did Jesus view his suffering and death? How should we? And, most importantly, did Jesus really rise from the dead and what does his resurrection mean? The story of Jesus raises many crucial questions. Pope Benedict XVI brings to his study the vast learning of a brilliant scholar, the passionate searching of a great mind, and the deep compassion of a pastor's heart.

LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Never has a Pope, in a book-length interview, dealt so directly with such wide-ranging and controversial issues as is done in Light of the World. Taken from a weeklong series of interviews with veteran journalist Peter Seewald, this book tackles head-on some of the greatest issues facing the world of in our time. Seewald poses such forthright questions to Pope Benedict as:

- What caused the clergy sexual abuse in the Catholic Church?
- Was there a “cover up”?
- Does affirming the goodness of the human body mean a plea for “better sex”?
- Can there be a genuine dialogue with Islam?
- Should the Church rethink Catholic teaching on priestly celibacy, women priests, contraception, and same-sex relationships?
- Is there a schism in the Catholic Church?
- Is Christianity the only truth?
- Can the Pope really speak for Jesus Christ?
- How can the Pope claim to be “infallible”?
- Is there a “dictatorship of relativism” today?

Though Seewald interviews the Pope himself, the journalist “pulls no punches”, posing some of the thorniest questions any Pope has ever had to address. Believers and unbelievers will be fascinated to read Benedict’s thoughtful, straightforward and thought-provoking replies. This is no stern preachment or ponderous theological tract, but a lively, fast-paced, challenging, even entertaining exchange.

CHURCH FATHERS

From Clement of Rome to Augustine

The book presents the important figures of early Christianity in all their evangelical vitality, spiritual profundity, and uncompromising love of God. It tells the true story of Christianity’s against-all-odds triumph in the face of fierce Roman hostility and persecution.

It does this by exploring the lives and the ideas of the early Christian writers, pastors, and martyrs, men so important to the spread of Christianity that history remembers them as “the Fathers of the Church”. This rich and engrossing survey of the early Church includes those churchmen who immediately succeeded the Apostles, the “Apostolic Fathers”: Clement of Rome, Ignatius of Antioch, Justin Martyr, and Irenaeus of Lyon. He also discusses such great Christian figures as Tertullian, Origen, Cyprian of Carthage, the Cappadocian Fathers, as well as the giants John Chrysostom, Jerome, and Augustine. This book is a wonderful way to get to know the Church Fathers and the tremendous spirituality rich patrimony they have bequeathed to us.

THEOLOGY

INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE

Theology of Sacred Space

by Simon Pinto

The theology presented in this book is an interreligious theology to aid dialogue with other religions. Sacred space theology emerges in the search for a common ground for dialogue especially with the believers of Buddhism and Jainism who do not believe in a personal

God, who is otherwise the common ground. Yet even the atheists can be very well part of such a dialogue based on sacred space as seen in the present work that sacred space extends beyond the physical religious structures to every human heart, his conscience and all that is good and holy.

SCRIPTURE STUDIES

GOD AND HUMAN THEN AND NOW

Biblical Personalities for Inspiration and Imitation

by Fr Joseph Lazar

Growth of human beings considerably depends on Imitation. Inspiring lives of the popular personalities affect the behavioural or thinking pattern of the individuals. Similarly, the 'image' and the 'likeness' of God in us guide us towards living like Him. In this pursuit, the Bible itself presents to us a few models for imitation in order to be God-like. This book presents us forty men and women who tried to live up to the expectations of God as models for improving our Christian life. A challenge is put forth to the reader in order to live like that person here and now, and to give a taste of that person to those around. The book invites us to learn with simplicity, live with authenticity, lead others with courage and leave a legacy with the grace of God.

CATECHETICS

THE SACRAMENTS ARE JESUS

by Fr Franklin Lobo, CSsR

The Sacraments have always had a very special place in the life of the Church and so in the life of the Christian believer. In this book, author meaningfully draws out the rich meaning of the sacraments by taking them out of the realm of the ritual and placing them rightly in the context of Gift, the gift of the Father, Jesus. In this book, the catechism on the sacraments is clearly brought out. Jesus is most important, yet without the ceremony, we cannot meet/receive Him. Each sacrament is explained using a new way – 4 aspects of each sacrament through a diagram. A summary for each chapter will help teachers and those who wish to do intensive study. The basic thought pattern takes into account human psychology, and our deep human need for love and fulfillment. This book, simple in style, practical in approach and yet profound in its very relevant matter will be a source of inspiration and deepening of this precious gift of the Sacraments.

AFRICAN SPIRITUALITY

Facts, Meanings, and Values

Ed. Thomas Kochalumchuvattil MSFS

This book provides scholarly and valuable articles to clarify the meaning of spirituality through an understanding of the multiplicity and variety of indigenous religions in Africa. This study is of tremendous importance for understanding the beauty of Africa and the depth of African spirituality. It questions us as to whether or not we have understood the uniqueness and richness of the indigenous religions and culture of Africa. It opens up new insights and vistas to the understanding and living of spirituality. This study encourages us to look at sacredness and spirituality from the ideal of wholeness instead of spiritual perfection. African spirituality gives way to wholeness and holistic ideas and values of spiritual life.
